

Barbara Helene Maco, MBA in Sustainable Management

Position in company: Associate of r3 environmental technology ltd. (in-house consultant)

Education

- MBA in Sustainability Management, Presidio Graduate School, SF, CA.USA
- B.A., University of California at Los Angeles (USA) in Conservation of Ecological Systems

Key areas of expertise

Public/private partnerships to advance environmental sustainability and community resiliency.
Sustainable Resilient remediation and redevelopment of impaired lands including renewable energy,

Recent professional experience

Sustainability Director, Wactor & Wick LLP, Oakland CA. (July, 2013 to present)
Support clients with projects for the cleanup and redevelopment of contaminated properties including the deployment of renewable energy. Develops project plans and oversees implementation including communications and liaison with regulators

Program Advisor for the U.S. Interstate Technology and Regulatory Council (ITRC) Sustainable Resilient Remediation Team to update 2011 ITRC Sustainable Remediation Guidance and include a major section on resilience to extreme weather events and wildfires.

Climate Change Technical Initiative Leader, U.S. Sustainable Remediation Forum
Spearheaded report: Resilient Remediation: Addressing Extreme Weather and Climate Change, Creating Community (Remediation Journal 12/18)

Previous Employment

Nov. 2010- Jan. 2013: Manager, Greener Cleanup and Reuse at US EPA
Sept. 2008 – Sept. 2010: International Liaison for Sustainable Disaster Preparedness at U.S. Northern Command
Sept. 2003 – Sept. 2008: Coordinator for Environmental Justice and U.S-Mexico Border Stewardship and Emergency Preparedness at US EPA
March 1994 - July 2003: Environmental Consultant at Maco Environmental Consulting
Dec. 1980 - June 1994: Project Manager: Waste, and Air Quality Improvement at U.S. EPA

Languages: English native speaker, fluent in Spanish; working knowledge of French